

Turning the Page: Welcome New Executive Committee of IESA

On the 5th of November 2023, Sunday, we had our 9th Annual General Meeting at Essex Farm, Delhi.

The AGM commenced at 7:00 pm, with President Sunil More extending a warm welcome and expressing gratitude to everyone for taking the time to join us on a Sunday. The current Executive Committee, comprising Mr. Sunil More, Mr. Jatinder Kapur, Mr. Surinder Vasisht, and Mr. Nimit Soni, then initiated discussions on the meeting agenda.

The agenda covered a range of topics, including a review of past IESA activities, financial reports, and plans for future association initiatives. An engaging interaction ensued between the Executive Committee and the attendees, where they discussed the challenges faced by service providers, emphasizing the need for regular training for ground staff to handle critical situations and prevent incidents at the site.

Following this insightful interaction, Mr. Nimit Soni announced the proposed names for the new Executive Committee. All attendees unanimously agreed to the proposed names. As a result, Mr. Jatinder Kapur assumed the role of the new President, and Mr. Surat Singh Malhotra

Message from the President

Jatinder Kapur
President, IESA

Dear Members of IESA,

I am truly honored and grateful to compose this message as the newly elected President of our esteemed association. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to Mr. Nanu Binu, Mr. H.K. Bhattad, and Mr. Sunil More for their efforts in establishing IESA, transforming it from a small association with nine charter members to the community of over 350 members we are today.

As I take on this role, I am committed to serving our community with dedication and passion. I would like to congratulate the new Executive Committee and express my optimism that together, we will add significant value to the association.

As we embark on this new journey, we invite our members to provide feedback and suggestions, enabling us to enhance the association's meaning and relevance to the industry and its members. Following the suggestions made during the AGM, we will be implementing a training program for our ground staff at different levels, fostering an environment that encourages learning and development.

Entering the New Year, let us seize the opportunities that lie ahead, making it a year of achievements, shared successes, and strengthened bonds within our association. Together, we will make 2024 a year to be remembered. Wishing you all a Happy Republic Day! May the spirit of patriotism and unity inspire us to work towards the progress and prosperity of our great nation. Jai Hind!

On this note, I extend my warmest congratulations to our newest executive member, P Cube, for joining the association. We anticipate that your addition will bring more business, networking opportunities, and energy to the association.

Lastly, I wish continued success to Benson Trophies, a renowned name for awards and trophies. It is always a pleasure to celebrate our members' achievements and highlight their efforts and expertise in our newsletter.

Thank you once again for entrusting me with this responsibility. Let us work hand in hand to make IESA even more successful and meaningful to the industry.

Here's to a prosperous New Year filled with growth, achievements, and joy for all!

Warm regards,

➔ From...Pg # 1

Ms. Uma Menon, Mr. Raghav Khosla, Mr. Harbans Nagpal, and Mr. Simha Shastry from New EC were also present at the AGM, bringing freshness and new perspectives to the meeting and the association. Ms. Uma Menon stated, 'This is the time when we should do something for the association'. With this dynamic team and their innovative approach, we are optimistic that IESA will reach new heights, continuing to serve the industry at its best.

Reflecting on 2023: A Milestone Year for the Events and Exhibitions Industry

The year 2023 was a Milestone year for the events, exhibition, and conferencing industry, bouncing back from the challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic. The sector showed resilience, overcoming global health crisis effects, and embracing new trends.

As India took on the Presidency of the G20 Nations it created immense opportunities for our Industry – The various conferences held across the length and breadth of the country helped in creating job opportunities as well as created enabling opportunities for our member in Tier 2 and Tier 3 cities.

The Iconic Pragati Maidan was revamped and there was the impressive launch of the Bharat Mandapam. The Dwarka Expo Centre christened “Yashobhoomi” is heralding another era in the Events, Exhibition and Mice industry. both the venues are a testament of India's ability to host world-class exhibitions.

Not just these two, but the newly launched JIO World Conventional Centre also hosted numerous events, exhibitions, conferences, and award shows, testifying to India's changing landscape.

Today, India with its top-notch venues is at par with any country globally when it comes to hosting events or exhibitions.

This year had a positive impact on the growth of this industry. According to Mordor Intelligence, the Indian event and exhibition market is forecasted to increase from $4.83 billion in 2023 to $7.20 billion by 2028, indicating a CAGR of 8.31% during this period.

Exhibitions and events emerged as critical contributors, playing a pivotal role in stimulating economic activity. As the industry continues to grow, it becomes a driving force for employment, investment, and overall economic rejuvenation.

As we entered 2024, the industry stands tall, having overcome challenges and achieved unprecedented success. World-class venues, successful international events, and significant market growth are all signs of a flourishing industry. Looking ahead, there is hope that the sector will continue to grow, driven by its strength and commitment to excellence. With a growing market and a global outlook, the events and exhibition sector is poised to contribute significantly to India's socio-economic development in the coming years.

Benson Trophies: Celebrating 40 Years of Excellence and Innovation in Awards and Trophies

Benson Trophies, known as the "McDonalds of the Award Industry" by its customers, is a well-established name in the world of awards and trophies. The company, which began its operations in 1983 in Delhi with a focus on serving schools and colleges, recently celebrated its 40th anniversary and has expanded its operations to Delhi, Mumbai, Bangalore, and Canada.

Mr. Parag Anand, the current Managing Director, joined Benson Trophies 14 years ago in 2010, bringing valuable experience from MNCs and corporations like Birla SunLife, Kotak Mahindra Bank, Max Life India Insurance Co Ltd., and Max Bupa. His fresh perspective revitalized the company, leading to a shift in focus towards the events and exhibition industry, as well as catering to corporate clients.

Benson Trophies has left no stone unturned in reaching every possible client, evolving from distributing products to vendors to selling directly to customers. The company's success lies in its diversity and innovative approach, consistently adapting to new designs and technologies. Notably, they have introduced an entire range of eco-friendly trophies, emphasizing their commitment to sustainability.

Customization is a key aspect of Benson Trophies' service, ensuring trophies meet the specific needs of clients and are delivered promptly. Mr. Parag Anand's statement, "We can deliver even 100 trophies by evening," reflects the company's dedication to their work.

The company's impressive client list includes manufacturing trophies for events such as the Sabse Tez Awards of Aaj Tak, NDTV Influencer Award, Shri Ram Finance, and medals for Khelo India. Benson Trophies has gained recognition, being featured in Magzte.com, Everything Experiential digital articles, as well as on AajTak and Zee Business.

We extend our best wishes to Benson Trophies and Mr. Parag Anand, the rising star in 2024, for continuing to elevate awarding standards and achieving further name and fame in the industry.
